french parquet

Our luxuriously designed French Parquet Marble Collection is a nod to the 18th century when hand-hewn wood floors were crafted for discriminating aristocracy. By constructing a parquet pattern out of marble, we've updated an old-school design with a contemporary twist.

Nothing in a design plan stands out more readily than an element that appears to be custom in nature. In our view, this is where this collection truly distinguishes itself. With this collection, homeowners and interior designers can truly customize an interior.

We've crafted these uniquely designed parquetry and marquetry patterns in three gorgeous stones. They deliver a unique revival of a beloved classic with a unique appeal.

For an antique feel, choose our French Parquet Marble Collection. It's suitable for residential and commercial horizontal and vertical applications, from backsplashes to shower floors.
